400574

3 RABBITS

rabbit

Soft, cuddly bunnies are super cute! They also reproduce quickly to help farmers earn income. A doe (female rabbit) usually has four litters of babies a year. 400587

chicken

$4

With a small investment, families can raise chickens for eggs, meat, and manure to earn income to meet their basic needs for food, clothing, and school tuition. Your gift of a chicken helps a family access a consistent source of protein and start a small business in backyard chicken farming.

400483

chicken-raising training

$38

Your gift of training in poultry-raising helps families successfully raise chickens for food and income. This training includes instruction in feeding, tending, and hatching healthy chickens as well as information about basic accounting, budgeting, and marketing skills to equip farmers for success.

400852

Your Story

SURREY CHRISTIAN SCHOOL SURREY, BRITISH COLUMBIA

LAST YEAR, the kindergarteners at Surrey Christian School in British Columbia raised funds to help communities worldwide who live with poverty, hunger, and injustice. "Students did chores for their families for a month to earn money for the gift catalogue," said teacher Karin Loubser. They raised $926.10 (CAD), and bought baby kits, kindergarten starter packs, handwashing stations, goats, beehives, ducks, and chickens. "Our deep hope is that young learners know that they belong to caring and generous communities," she added, "and in turn, become caring and generous community-builders."

"OUR DEEP HOPE IS THAT YOUNG LEARNERS KNOW THAT they belong TO CARING AND GENEROUS COMMUNITIES."

pig

$180

Your Story

CLINTON, ONTARIO

ANGELA KAPTEIN, an artisan from Clinton, Ontario, has been donating half of her craft sales to purchase chickens from the World Renew gift catalogue since 2015.

"Our family has raised chickens for 35 years, and we know that there are many opportunities in raising poultry and other livestock. World Renew's programmes are vital to many struggling families who are slowly becoming self-sufficient."

By 2020, Angela had given a total of 4,626 chickens to help hungry families around the world. Angela has dubbed herself "A Chick for Charity," and her work with World Renew has already made a huge difference.

"We have been very blessed by God and we are convinced that we also need to bless others. We pray that more families will join us in supporting the important work of World Renew."

RANDOLPH CHRISTIAN SCHOOL RANDOLPH, WISCONSIN

LAST YEAR, the Christian school in Randolph, Wisconsin, went ahead with its annual Christmas fundraiser despite the challenges of the coronavirus shutdowns. In each grade, the students raised funds for an animal on the World Renew Farm Team—a pig, a cow, a duck, a chicken, and 25 ducklings—totalling $385.

"We determined that if each student donated $7, we could provide the Farm Team items from the catalogue to families around the world who need them most," said Dr. Jeff Hoogeveen, school principal. When the project ended, the K-8 students raised an amazing $555! Thank you, RCS families, for helping people through World Renew with the food, milk, eggs, and meat they need, especially in a pandemic.

"WHEN THE PROJECT ENDED, THE K-8 students raised AN AMAZING $555!"

Your Story

FIRST CHRISTIAN REFORMED CHURCH KINGSTON, ONTARIO

SINCE NEIL AND GERTIE MINNEMA first visited Uganda with World Renew in 2004, they have been “getting someone’s goat” in the best kind of way. “We were on a work trip near Kampala, and we met a woman who received two very playful goats through a World Renew programme in her village,” Gertie said.

When they got back to Ontario, the Minnemas approached the leaders at the First Kingston Christian Reformed Church about doing a Christmas goat fundraiser. It was a great success that began to snowball. Every fall, the couple was asked to organize a goat project — and they said yes.

“Last year, our church did the goat project during the coronavirus outbreak,” said Neil. “We were completely surprised when we raised the most funds ever — $9,486 for 153 goats. What a blessing!” Since their first fundraiser in 2004, First CRC has raised enough money to provide families in poverty with well over a thousand goats.
