

REFUGEE SUNDAY

“Do not oppress a foreigner, you yourselves know how it feels to be foreigners, for you were foreigners in Egypt.”

Exodus 23: 9

Kidane's story

I am grateful to Linda, her son, Trevor, and the congregation at Georgetown Christian Reformed Church—our God is good.

I had no freedom in my homeland, Eritrea. I was forced to work day and night in the mining industry, for little and at times no pay. There was never enough to eat and I became sick with malaria several times. I left my family to find a country we could call home, one that would give my boys opportunities to thrive.

The process was long and difficult. I was turned away many times.

I am grateful for the church and the families in Canada who have surrounded me and my family. Having my family arrive is a blessing.

Pray for refugees worldwide. Pray for families seeking a safe place to rebuild their lives that doors will open so they find renewed hope.
