TOUR SUMMARY

Calling all pastors, deacons, church leaders, World Renew ambassadors, and board members! Join a transformative tour to Guatemala where you'll deepen your understanding of poverty and justice while experiencing the diverse geography of the country. You'll visit programs focused on education, preventative health, agriculture, diaconal training, community development, and livelihoods training. Additionally, you'll learn about anti-racism from Indigenous women and explore how to apply those insights to your ministry context in Canada. Join World Renew in Guatemala and gain a fresh perspective to lead your church, particularly on global issues.
