PICK A PIG FOR CHRISTMAS

LAST YEAR as a Christmas fundraiser at Wolf Creek Community Church in Lacombe, Alberta, we collected money for pigs from the World Renew gift catalogue,” said Ted Vander Meulen, a deacon. “We kicked off the project by bringing two pigs from our farm to the church as part of a children’s presentation. Then we took an offering for the project for the three weeks preceding Christmas, during Advent, in addition to our regular, scheduled offerings. At Christmas, we raised $5,348 — enough to give nearly 30 pigs to families around the world!”

BUY THE FARM

AT TRINITY Christian Reformed Church in Abbotsford, British Columbia, we used the World Renew gift catalogue to build and ‘Buy the Farm,’” said Kevin Schut, one of the organizers. “One night, we had a family chili dinner together, and then we broke out into four inter-generational teams.

“For the rest of the evening, the teams built farms from poster board, LEGOs, and modeling clay. Team members earned points by filling their barnyards with illustrations of items they purchased from the gift catalogue, like chickens, cows, or goats. Teams could earn more points by winning a Twelve Days of Christmas singing contest or molding a nativity scene from clay to add to their farm.

“At the end of the night, the team that earned the most points was declared the winner and got a fabulous chicken trophy. We had great fun and ended up raising $10,000 for World Renew through the gift catalogue. We were really happy with the way the evening worked out and hope you are inspired to try this kind of event, too!”

GALVARY CHRISTIAN REFORMED CHURCH,
OTTAWA, ONTARIO

A LEGACY OF CATALOGUE GIVING

2020 is the tenth year that the women's Bible study group at Calvary Church in Ottawa, Ontario, has challenged their congregation to buy a gift for Christmas from the World Renew gift catalogue. Over the years, they have provided goats, chickens, food baskets, and sheep for people who live in poverty around the world.

"We announce the start of the project to the congregation on the first Sunday in December and go to New Year's Eve for the late shoppers," said one organizer. "Every donation gets a gift tag on the Christmas tree in the fellowship hall. The last few years, we added a smaller tree for the children. One dollar lets them put up a gift tag.

"After ten years, the Giving Tree Project and World Renew gift catalogue are a tradition in our church, and everyone seems to enjoy it. It is such a joy to know that we are part of something bigger together. As a church family, the Christmas tree gift challenge reminds us there are many people in God's world that need help. Jesus calls us to help our neighbours every day. Praise God, we are blessed to be able to help others."
